

LEAH LOREDO

ABOUT

Leah Loredo (She/They) is a producer and DJ currently based in Denver, CO. She fell in love with music at an early age, heavily influenced by her dad's taste in techno which he discovered during their time living abroad in Germany. Being from a military family, Leah was exposed to lots of different cultures and their music growing up. Picking up production came naturally after her experience as an A&R at Nite Records, and you can hear her discerning taste in her compositions. Her penchant for thick basslines and high energy percussion shows in her productions, and despite only starting her project a year ago, the powerhouse has already seen success with tracks on Hood Politics, House Of Hustle and Nite Records, as well as her self-released Club Pride edit Volume. You can catch her regularly playing support for Kyle Walker, Sidepiece, Odd Mob and more. A truly versatile talent, expect to be seeing much more of Leah Loredo in 2024!
